ter doctrines and just measures. Democrats will not intrust their most cherished principles to the keeping of power which is attained by vicious and corrupt means. They will the rather coatinue their faith in the right of the majority to rule in accordance with constitutional provision. All Democrats rejoice with unbounded joy that no father or mother living, and no guardian, and that he resides in the City of Memphis, Tennessee, it is ordered that he appear and free republican governments are once more allowed to the States of South Carolina and Louisiana. They rejoice in the good fruits plead, answer or demur to the bil that must follow. They know that peace and good order will prevail; that capital will be made secure, and labor safe, contended, and happy, that enterprise will revive. on, a newspaper published in the City of Jackson, and that a copy of this order be furnished, postage prepaid, by the Clerk of this Court to the address of said Eddie Burns. and the cruel burdens of the Government and public corrumption will be lifted from the shoulders of labor; and that production will increase and lands advance in price. Gov. Morton, it had become "inevitable. Good government in the States was not a freewill offering upon the altars of the country. For years the Democrats had contended in Congress and before the people for free republican States thoughout South, and finally it became " inevitable, because the right and truth were too strong to be longer suppressed. In this Democrats find a reason to stand more firmly with their party. Out of power, with no patron-age to dispense and no money to distribute, but animated by the spirit of our institutions, and inspired by the sentiment of the right of local self-government as inherent in the people, the Democratic party during the past ten years has restored one State after another, until now the tread of the sol-dier is heard in no legislative hall, but in the affidavit on file, that Robert L. Jelks and Hope H. Lenoir, Defendants, are non-residents every State the people are governed by laws of their own exacting and by officers of theirown choosing.
